

Are you currently in Year 11 at a Victorian school and looking for an academic challenge and/or university experiences while in Year 12?

Look no further - join the University of Melbourne Extension Program! Come to our information evening and find out more.

Thursday 22 October 2009

Starts at 6pm

GM15 Theatre, Melbourne Law School Building, Parkville campus

Admission to the information evening is free

Register early online to secure your place at: www.futurestudents.unimelb.edu.au/umep

The University of Melbourne Extension Program provides high achieving Year 12 students an opportunity for academic extension by studying a first year university subject sequence while still at school. The Information Evening is an ideal opportunity to have your questions answered by academic and Extension Program staff, and past Extension Program students.

Visit our website for further information and updates on the event and visitor parking details.
